[AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE]

TO

Continue and amend for a further limited period the Peace Preservation (Ireland) Act, 1881. A.D. 1886.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 5 1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Peace Preservation (Ireland) Continuance Act, 1886. Short title

2.—(1.) The Peace Preservation (Ireland) Act, 1881, shall be continued until the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven. Continuance of 44 & 46 Vict. c. 5.

- 10 (2.) Every Proclamation and Order made, and every notice and license issued, and every thing done, under the authority of that Act, shall be of the same force and effect as if that Act had been originally limited to continue until the said first day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, save that 15 sub-section four of section four of the said Act shall not be continued.

Provided that from and after the passing of this Act the court of summary jurisdiction mentioned in the fifth section of the said Act shall (elsewhere than in the police district of Dublin 20 metropolis) be constituted of two or more resident magistrates sitting alone in petty sessions.

3. There shall be published monthly in the "Dublin Gazette" a return of the counties proclaimed, with the number of search warrants granted and the number of licences refused, the number
25 granted, and the character of the weapons licensed, distinguishing each county separately:

[Bill 240.]

Publication of monthly returns.

- A.D. 1866. — The return for the first month after the passing of this Act shall show for each county the number of existing licences, the character of the weapons licensed, and the number of search warrants granted.

Arms (Ireland).
